HERE'S WHERE WE SHARE OUR PROFITS WITH YOU

Commencing Thursday, July 13, and Continuing for 10 Days, Including Monday, July 24, We Will Offer Rare Bargains in Shoes.

Naturally we must make a fair profit on the shoes we sell in season, and we do, but right now we must think of clearing off our shelves to make room for FALL GOODS. It costs us something to do this, and if you will come in and carry away one or more pairs of low-cuts we are willing to pay you for it. That's fair, isn't it? Here's the way we'll do it; we've made a

25 Per Cent. Reduction On Every Low-Cut Shoe in The House From Our Low-Cash Prices

You can wear Oxfords for several months—many women wear pumps throughout the winter—every shoe we offer is strictly new in style—you simply can't afford to neglect this opportunity. You can better afford to buy several pairs to have for next Spring.
